

23 June 2008

Notice of Vacancies for Internship at the Party of European Socialists (PES) in the Communications Unit (Website – 2 positions)

September 2008 – June 2009

Job descriptions :

- Support the work of the PES secretariat's communications team in the run up to the 2009 European election campaign
- Develop and promote the on-line elements of the PES 2009 campaign
- Monitor and animate online discussions, liaise with bloggers, update pages of PES website
- Write short articles and other input for the PES website
- Organise, film, edit and market videos

Your profile :

- Active membership of a PES member party or a closely related organization
- Solid experience of using web tools and/or videos.
- Demonstrate interest in Communications and campaigning
- Capacity to manage projects
- Excellent English (including written English) and at least another EU language. French is an asset
- High motivation and pro-activeness

Practical information :

- Location : PES Headquarters, 98 rue du Trône, Brussels
- Duration : September 2008 – June 2009
- Remuneration : + /-900 euros net + meal tickets

Please send your application letter, accompanied by a detailed CV, to Philip Cordery, Secretary General, in English or French before 11 July 2008. Applications should be sent by e-mail to alice.nguyen@pes.org with the subject : INTERN COM WEB

Candidates whose profiles best match the job description will be invited for interviews during the second half of July or the second part of August for employment date 1st September 2008. The PES promotes equal opportunities for women and men.

