

23 June 2008

Notice of Vacancies for Internships at the Party of European Socialists (PES) in the Policy unit

September 2008 – January 2009

4 positions open:

1. on international policy & globalisation
2. on economic, social & environmental policies
3. on migration, gender, citizen's rights & institutional issues
4. on transversal and general European issues

Job description :

- Support the work of the PES secretariat's policy team in the run up to the 2009 European election campaign
- Provide research and briefings on EU policy issues in the framework of the PES political information campaign
- Help with speechwriting
- Internship on international policy & globalisation will also include assisting with the organisation of an important event of the Global Progressive Forum

Your profile :

- Interest in politics & member (or close to) a socialist or social-democratic party
- Very good understanding of EU policies and EU politics
- Excellent research and writing skills, particularly in English
- Excellent English (including written English) and at least another EU language. French is an asset
- High motivation and pro-activeness

Practical information :

- Location : PES Headquarters, 98 rue du Trône, Brussels
- Duration : September 2008 – January 2009
- Remuneration : + /-900 euros net + meal tickets

Please send your application letter, accompanied by a detailed CV, to Philip Cordery, Secretary General, in English or French before 11 July 2008. Applications should be sent by e-mail to sandrine.bertin@pes.org with the subject: INTERN POLICY + number of internship (see above)

Candidates whose profiles best match the job description will be invited for interviews during the second half of July or the second part of August for employment date 1st September 2008.

PES internships run for a period of 5 months. They are renewable once. The PES promotes equal opportunities for women and men.

