Commissioner for Justice, Freedom and Security
European Commission

15 May 2006

Dear Commissioner,

In light of the upcoming World Cup, we would like to draw your attention once more to the PES Women Campaign 'Celebrate the World Cup, Fight Sexual Slavery'.

Since International Women's Day on 8 March 2006, we have collected more than 23,000 signatures, amongst which prominent leaders and politicians from our socialist and socio-democratic parties across the European Union. A Danish Trade Union has also been collecting signatures and their number has reached over 65,000 signatures.

We believe that in your capacity as Commissioner for Justice, Freedom and Security, it is important you receive - personally - this petition, which is supported by such a high number of politicians and citizens from all around the world. Together with the Danish Trade Union representative, we would like to handover the petition before the start of the World Cup on 9 June 2006.

We appreciate your busy schedule, but nevertheless would like to arrange a twenty-minute-meeting in the week beginning on 29 May or 5 June to handover the petition.

We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours sincerely,

Zita Gurmai
